beginning of this week has been a wild ride on the music scene and as it's a continuing story which you music lovers to ... well ... love ... lol !!! I'll start by saying there are no vocals, but the funky elements add more character to this song than any vocals could ever add anyhow ... lol !!! It's just one seriously ripping funk groove, that starts funky, and slowly builds-up, ending in something EXTREMELY funky !!! And please don't let the title scare you into not checking this tune out, because there really isn't impression at all that this is anything close to Disco. As with all Timo Maas's great mixes, you definitely need to play this loud to fully appreciate it for the great track it is !!! Anyhow, if you like hard funky house beats (and even if you don't), this tune is definitely for you !!! :) - DJ RRebel 2000Dec22 (Mother's Pride) Floribunda (Snackwell's Daddy Mix) [Trance][8.2 megs - 8:46 mins - 128 kb/s] - Another happy sweet track for you all to enjoy for the holiday season ... :) !!! This one has some great choir type chanting going on over a really nice piano groove, and when combined together with a simple but very nice trance beat and a few other added elements, you get one really great uplifting track ... pretty much the perfect tune for ending an night to get your crowd leaving with a smile on their faces, already thinking of being there next week !!! :) - DJ RRebel 2000Dec22 (Marshall And Oakley) Eclipse (???) [Trance][4.5 megs - 4:46 mins - 128 kb/s] - In 5 words or less ... "Simply a great Trance Track !!!" ... lol. Nothing hard to describe about this one, it's get very simple yet strong and gripping synth hooks with a solid underlying trance beat. No vocals at all ... lol .. and nothing else to say, it's one great tune that's not to be missed if you're into trance in any way !!! :) - DJ RRebel 2000Dec22 (Mario Piu) Styflex (???) [Techno][6.5 megs - 6:56 mins - 128 kb/s] - I totally give up on trying to peg the Italian connection (Piu and Picotto) down as doing any particular genre ... lol .. just when I think they've stagnated into one type of sound, they turn everything around 180 degrees and do something totally different !!! lol .. I don't even know what to say about this one ... maybe I'll start with the obvious ... there are no vocals ... lol. Now for the long part ... the musical content. Well, the one thing that hasn't changed, is that it has heavy beat, but there's all sorts of arabic based elements, as well as a nice piano solo that builds into something totally unexpected. I seriously have no idea if any of you will like this or not, but it's definitely unique and worth checking out ... lol .. cause it actually is a fairly neat tune overall if you listen to it with an open mind !!! :) - DJ RRebel
